Rule #26 If a player sees her ball land in a sand trap, the player could declare an unplayable lie and hit another ball from the same place before advancing. The score would be counted the same for a ball being hit into a water hazard, i.e. stroke 1 in the strap, stroke 2 is out, hitting 3. The ball in the sand would be picked up as play progresses past the sand trap.

Bunker ball. If a ball lands in a bunker, the player can proceed to the bunker, then drop another ball within 2 club lengths and not nearer the hole at the point where the ball entered the hazard, 1 STROKE PENALTY. The count would be stroke 1 hitting the ball in the bunker, stroke 2 is removing the ball, and stroke 3 is hitting the ball.
